

A. Eight dollars a week. Once in a while ten every week.

Q. And no more than eight or ten dollars?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you get that regular every week?

A. From Mr. Forter, trust officer at the bank.

Q. You would go regularly?

A. Yes.

Q. Was there ever any time that you went to any of your relatives to get any size amount of money?

A. Once in a very great while. Not very often.

Q. What did you do with that?

A. What do you mean?

Q. Used it for charitable purposes?

A. Yes.

Q. What's the largest amount you gave them?

A. I might have given them ten dollars.

Q. What time did you give it to them?

A. No special time.

Q. Every week?

A. Oh, no. No special time.

Q. How old is the young lady?

A. She is near eighteen.

Q. And mother about?

A. I haven't any idea.

Q. About forty, probably?

A. Yes. But I will say they are good people.

Q. You say that you have borrowed amounts from you relatives at different times?

A. And friends.

Q. What amount?
